Business Wisdom works with business leaders (company owners, executives, and professionals) who want their firms to grow, prosper and continue on by winning at the games of business.

Build a more vibrant and successful company, achieve what you personally want out of your business, and leave behind a lasting legacy, by applying our winning approaches which:

- Create a powerful business purpose and direction
- Generate profitable business opportunities
- Focus and align your people and processes
- Bring forth the best in yourself and your team

“Harvy has greatly improved communication among company owners, coordination among organization functions, and the effectiveness of our whole management team.”

-Stan Zack, VP and Principal, STS Systems

“Your advice and process in assisting us to evaluate our possible business directions, and then to help us make consensual decisions about them, was invaluable.”

-John Towner, Managing Partner, Business Technologies

“You have constantly amazed me both with the range of your expertise and your knowledge. You have a shrewd and unique business savvy.”

-Maya Balle, President, Balle Arts International

“You have worked with us to make our organization more customer-focused, increasingly internally organized, and better managed overall. With your insight, we now have positioned ourselves to realize more fully the next level of our business growth and profitability.”

-Denny Engstrom, President & Bill Engstrom, VP, Brooks Interiors
